Paris Belts was established in 1949. Specialist in our market, we became an established brand in both retail and corporate markets, both locally and internationally.

In 2019, the company was re-branded as Paris Manufacturing.

Sourcing our raw materials such as exotic and luxury leathers from a global network of specialist suppliers, Paris Manufacturing continue to provide a diversified product range of superior quality. By providing innovative branding options and with our attention to detail, Paris Manufacturing assures clients a product that can be aligned with the personality of their individual brand
